Welcome!

BRIC is a home for art, media, performance, dance, music, and creativity in Downtown Brooklyn.
How do you get to BRIC?

BRIC House is accessible via subway, bus, or car. From the Atlantic Terminal subway and LIRR station, walk Northwest on Flatbush Ave. past the Apple Store and Whole Foods 365.

Cross Lafayette Ave. and walk down Rockwell Pl. to Fulton St.

The entrance to BRIC is on the far side of Fulton St. on the right side of Rockwell Pl.
Arriving at BRIC

Ushers will be onsite one hour prior to the performance to open the doors for anyone who needs assistance.

Tickets for the performance can be picked up here one hour prior to the performance.
The Lobby will be open prior to showtime.

Visit the BRICafé for a drink or snack before the show.
Explore the Gallery at BRIC House. Our current exhibition is called Present Bodies: Papermaking at Dieu Donné.

Or hang out on the Stoop, a public space that will be open before the performance. The Stoop and Gallery are accessible via stairs or a wheelchair lift. Ask a BRIC staff member for help with the wheelchair lift.

Outlets and free Wi-Fi (network: BRICarts) are also available.
An accessible restroom is located at the end of the hallway.

More restrooms (not ADA accessible) are available downstairs.
The performance of Not I by Samuel Beckett will take place in the Ballroom, which is located on the 1st floor of BRIC. The Ballroom will open 15 minutes before show time.

There is a second set of doors going into the Ballroom. Ushers will be available to provide assistance as needed.
The Artist Studio

The Artist Studio will also be open and available for anyone who needs or wants to step out of the performance in the Ballroom at any time.
Thank you for visiting BRIC!
Please keep in touch and come back soon.

Gallery Hours: Tue–Fri, 11AM–7PM | Sat–Sun, 11AM–5PM
