IMOGEN
   O, for a horse with wings! Hear'st thou, Pisanio?
   He is at Milford Haven. Read, and tell me
   How far 'tis thither. If one of mean affairs
   May plod it in a week, why may not I
   Glide thither in a day? Then, true Pisanio,
   Who long'st like me to see thy lord, who long'st—
   O, let me bate—but not like me, yet long'st
   But in a fainter kind—O, not like me,
   For mine's beyond beyond—say, and speak thick—
   Love's counselor should fill the bores of hearing
   To th' smothering of the sense—how far it is
   To this same blessèd Milford. And by th' way
   Tell me how Wales was made so happy as
   T' inherit such a haven. But first of all,
   How we may steal from hence, and for the gap
   That we shall make in time from our hence-going
   And our return, to excuse. But first, how get hence?
   Why should excuse be born or ere begot?
   We'll talk of that hereafter. Prithee speak,
   How many score of miles may we well rid
   'Twixt hour and hour?
