

Wardrobe Supervisors & Dressers

New York City's Public Theater is looking for run-of-show wardrobe supervisors and dressers for its upcoming 2021-22 season. The wardrobe team is responsible for assisting actors with costume changes, loading-in/out of the wardrobe and dressing rooms, developing and updating the costume dressing lists and change plot, setting up the backstage change areas, as well as coordinating the care and maintenance of all costume pieces. Experienced wardrobe personnel as well as those new to the field are encouraged to apply.

Please send resumes and cover letter to Costume Shop Manager Vanessa Watters at vwatters@publictheater.org

As a condition of employment, the Public will require all who report to work on site (either at the Public Theater or any other workspace or performing location) to receive the COVID-19 vaccine. The Public will provide exceptions only for employees with an approved medical or religious exemption.

The Public is committed to creating a diverse and inclusive environment and is proud to be an equal opportunity employer. Applicants from populations underrepresented in the theater field are strongly encouraged to apply. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, gender, gender identity or expression, familial status, sexual orientation, national origin, ability, age, or veteran status.
